

What is Earth Star?

Earth Star Magazine is a bi-monthly publication for the alternative marketplace, focusing on holistic health, Green living, and life-style issues that are of special interest to our readers. Earth Star reaches an upscale, educated, discerning audience, interested in products, services, resources, and events that will enhance their own well-being and promote a better quality of life.

Earth Star has kept its readers informed and entertained since 1973, providing up-to-the minute information on noteworthy products, services, news, and events.

Because Earth Star is bi-monthly, your advertising dollar goes further. Plus, it makes a difference to your customers and clients to see your ad in an eye-catching, professionally produced publication filled with quality articles and features, while Earth Star's clean, well-layed-out appearance makes your ad stand out even more.

Earth Star brings its readers interviews, in-depth reports and the latest information available in the fields of holistic health, the environment, new science, spirituality, metaphysics, psychology, cross-cultural studies, music, art, and features that have made Earth Star a leader among holistic magazines.

In previous issues we've spotlighted Ram Dass, Tolku Thondup, Rabbi Michael Lerner, Val Kilmer, Gregg Braden, Lama Surya Das, John Trudell, Father William McNamara, Kay Gardner, Donna Eden, Thich Nhat Hanh, Doreen Virtue, John Mack, Barbara Brennan, Yes, Ian Anderson, Robbie Robertson, Leonard Peltier, Suzanne Somers, Mike Farrell, Dr. Kam Yuen, Dr. Fred Bell—and many other dynamic, innovative, and thought provoking people. We also review books, audio and video materials.

Earth Star's eye-catching covers feature the work of visionary artists from around the world, such as Peter Max, Jean-Paul Avisa, Tito Salamon, Schim Schimmel, Susan Patricia, Rob Schouten, Douglas Taylor, and Jim Warren. These collectible artists' works make Earth Star a must-see publication for many discriminating readers.